From Funchal, Madeira. Received through Messrs. Lathrop and Fairchild (Nos. 1177 and 1178, April 21, 1903), May 18, 1903.

9661. STREPTOSOLON JAMESONII.

"This is one of the showiest flowering shrubs I have ever seen. It is a native of South Africa and there and in Madeira the bushes are covered with dense masses of yellow and orange colored blooms. Already known in California." (Fairchild.) (No. 1177.)

9662. BIGNONIA CHAMBERLAYNII.

"A beautiful lemon yellow flowering species, which grows to perfection here on walls and trellises. It is covered with masses of big trumpet-shaped flowers." (Fairchild.) (No. 1178.)

9663. PERESKIA ACULEATA.

From Funchal, Madeira. Received through Messrs. Lathrop and Fairchild (No. 1183, April, 1903), May 18, 1903.

"Cuttings of this member of the cactus family, which is used for a stock on which to graft cacti. As a stock it is well known, but as an ornamental climber probably less well known. In Funchal a single plant, 3 years old, had covered the front fence of a private house with a wealth of beautiful foliage. It was loaded with one-seeded fruits, which, though edible, had little taste. Already known in California." (Fairchild.)

9664. CANARINA CANARIENSIS (?).

From Funchal, Madeira. Received through Messrs. Lathrop and Fairchild (No. 1185, April, 1903), May 16, 1903.

"Seed of a pretty creeper, native of the Canaries and deriving its generic name from the islands. It has luxuriant light-green foliage and bears bell-shaped orange-red flowers which are quite showy. It requires much moisture and grows naturally in shaded valleys of the Canaries. These seed came from the villa of Mr. Reid, some distance above the town of Funchal, in Madeira. Should thrive in Florida and possibly in southern California. Sometimes grown as a hothouse plant." (Fairchild.)

9665. CANNABIS SATIVA.Hemp.

From Yokohama, Japan. Received through The Yokohama Nursery Company, 21-35 Nakamura, Yokohama, Japan, May 20, 1903.
