

19206. PERSEA GRATISSIMA.*Avocado.

From Parras de la Fuente, Coahuila, Mexico. Presented by Dr. A. Walther, through Mr. O. W. Barrett, September 20, 1906.

"Seeds of a green-fruited variety; probably identical with budwood sent under No. 19196." (Barrett.)

19213 to 19216.

From Manila, P. I. Received through Mr. W. S. Lyon, of the Bureau of Agriculture, September 24, 1906.

19213. ANDROPOGON SORGHUM.*Sorghum.

Variety negrosense.

19214. ANDROPOGON SORGHUM.*Sorghum.

Variety negrosense erythrinum.

19215. AFZELIA RHOMBOIDEA.*"Tindalo."

"One of our choicest hardwood timbers." (Lyon.)

19216. DIOSPYROS DISCOLOR.

"This is a beautiful tree and has the most attractive and luscious looking fruit I know of, comparable only to a large, velvety, Indian, blood peach. As for taste—well, there is a time-worn French proverb that most people apply—'I like it, but then I am not a competent judge.'" (Lyon.)

19217 to 19225.

From Paramaribo, Dutch Guiana. Presented by Dr. J. J. Van Hall, Director of Agriculture, through Mr. O. W. Barrett, September 25, 1906.

19217 to 19219. XANTHOSOMA spp.*Yautia.*19217. Surinam.*19219. (Not labeled.)*19218. (Not labeled.)*19220. COLOCASIA sp.*Taro.

Wittie.

19221 to 19225. XANTHOSOMA spp.*Yautia.*19221. Koso.*19224. Sincsic.*19222. Abo.*19225. Finga.*19223. Redic.*19226. DIOSPYROS TEXANA.

From Falfurrias, Tex. Collected by Mr. David Fairchild, August 8, 1906.

Seeds for hybridizing experiments. "Tree reaches a height of 30 feet; fruit globose, black, and luscious." (Gray.)

19228. ARTOCARPUS INCISA.*Breadfruit.

From Ancon, Canal Zone, Panama. Received through Mr. H. F. Schultz, September 27, 1906.

19240. MEDICAGO SATIVA.*Alfalfa.

From Callao, Peru. Presented by Mr. Joseph C. Cree, U. S. consul. Numbered October 2, 1906.

19241. TACCA PINNATIFIDA.*Fiji arrowroot.

From Honolulu, Hawaii. Received through Mr. Jared G. Smith, Agricultural Experiment Station, October 4, 1906.

Hawaiian name, Pia.